14th SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME, YEAR A 8 / 9 July 2023

READINGS

Zechariah 9:9-10

See how humbly your king comes to you!

Romans 8:9, 11-13

If by the Spirit you put an end to the misdeeds of the body, you will live.

GOSPEL

Matthew 11:25-30

I am gentle and humble of heart.

Today's First Reading is often read in the light of Jesus arriving in Jerusalem on a donkey. And this foretaste of the type of Messiah Jesus was to be is to be expected. But there's context in this text that often gets missed. Before our passage, Zechariah proclaims God as universally sovereign. God's plans will not be undermined by anyone, even the gods of the surrounding nations. The humble king described in our passage will bring about those plans in two stages. Firstly, by bringing to an end the old animosity between the kingdoms of Ephraim (Northern tribes of Davidic Israel) and Judah (Southern tribes of Davidic Israel), not by continuing the cycle of war and mistrust, but through humility and peace-making. Secondly, this king will extend the freedom from the trap of war and mistrust to all nations. This king is not the traditionally expected warrior-hero.

The usual link to the Gospel is unclear, but perhaps the unexpected king who doesn't operate by traditional expectations amplifies the character of Jesus in the Gospel. Jesus' way of talking about God (intimately, known, Father) and Jesus' understanding of God and of the Law (hidden from learned but revealed to "children") were completely different from the expected, and very different from the perception of God in Jesus' time. Or perhaps the link could be in the character (humility) of the people that help to bring about God's plans.

The later part of the Gospel draws from the Old Testament wisdom literature. Jesus, and the wisdom literature, tell us that deeply knowing God in a communion of love, entailing deep intimacy, "lightens" the religious and ethical norms promulgated in God's name. The values the Law enshrines and seeks to foster will already be encased in the heart. Jesus has a vision of what is essential that cuts through the many false complexities that life suggests as ways to find meaning – busyness, wealth, power, having more of everything. The soul finds no rest in such things. In the words of St Augustine, 'You have made us for yourself O Lord, and our hearts are restless until they rest in Thee.'

In the Second Reading, Paul contrasts two ways of living: life in the flesh (unspiritual) and life in the spirit. For Paul, flesh refers to the limitations that sometimes incline one away from God. Life in the spirit is a life attuned to God. Paul insists that those who live in the Spirit have Christ living in them – the same Christ who, through his own death, vanquished the powers of death. Though sin can still exact physical death, it cannot quench the spirit that lives because of righteousness.

APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.

RECESSIONAL: THE FULLNESS OF GOD

1. Deep in Christ I pray you know the power he can give!
May your hidden self grow strong! And may you live strong in faith and built on love until you know how high and long, how wide and deep the fullness of God!
2. May the God of Jesus Christ, the Father we serve fill your mind that you may see, deep in your heart what hope his call now holds for you: His promise true: to fill your heart with power to live the fullness of God!
3. Know the way you learnt from Christ: to live life anew!
Let your heart be drawn to Him; let Christ renew the hope in you to grow into Goodness and Truth!
And living so you'll come to know the fullness of God!
And living so you'll come to know the fullness of God!
