19th SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME, YEAR A

12 / 13 August 2023

READINGS

1 Kings 19:9, 11-13

Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord God.

Romans 9:1-5

I would willingly be condemned if it could help my people.

GOSPEL

Matthew 14:22-33

Command me to come to you over the water.

Understanding revelation has kept theologians busy for many centuries. How does God reveal Godself to us? As Catholics we know that God is revealed through Scripture but also through our Tradition. Two thousand years of prayer, thought and teaching in faith have yielded understanding that has been passed on to us. The selections of Scripture today all hold examples of revelation.

Today's First Reading is one of the great moments of revelation in the Old Testament. What lifts Elijah out of his depression and renews his vocation is a totally new sense of God. The Lord once manifest in terrifying upheavals of nature is now known in something as subtle and gentle as 'sheer silence,' a silence that somehow has a 'voice'. The Judaeo-Christian mystical tradition has its foundation here.

In the Second Reading, Paul laments that so many Jews have missed seeing the revelation of God in so many ways and are now unable to recognise the Messiah in Jesus, the Christ. God has been revealed and yet there are Jews who cannot see what God has done.

We read the Gospel as a miracle story, which it is, but it is also a revelation of Jesus' identity. In the Old Testament only God is the one who has mastery over the sea (eg: Ps 89:9, Ps 77:19). When Jesus comes walking on the waves he is displaying to the disciples his divine identity for he shows that he now exercises power over the sea that belongs only to God. Later he even speaks to them using the Divine Name which God revealed to Moses, 'I AM who I AM' (Exod 3:14). What Jesus speaks to the disciples is often translated, 'Courage, it is I. Do not be afraid.' This English translation misses the force of the original Greek which uses the term for the Divine Name in the Old Testament, Ego Eimi, I AM. With this understanding the miracle story becomes a revelatory event, which most nature miracles in the Gospels are. They point to the identity of Jesus, in terms of Israel's God.

Peter can represent all disciples displaying both courage and frailty. Called by Jesus, Peter shows courage in venturing out of the boat's security into the stormy waters but then reality sets in and his faith wavers. Most of us are caught somewhere in Peter's story, living within the courage of Christian commitment, and the doubts that unsettle our faith. Our Church is in much the same position. It stepped out boldly into the renewal called for by the Second Vatican Council, but then individuals from all states of life began to waver. Some past securities were lost. We are, as a Pilgrim people of God, stepping out into new waters and it has been turbulent. Peter's cry is our prayer, 'Lord! Save me!' And Jesus reaches out his hand – to Peter, and to us. 'Take heart. I AM. Fear not.'

Refrain: *Be not afraid. I go before you always.
Come follow Me, and I will give you rest.*

If you pass through raging waters
in the sea, you shall not drown.

know that I am with you through it all.

APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC ACCLAMATION

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your death, O Lord, until you come again.

Excerpts from the English Translation of The Roman Missal.

COMMUNION: LORD, TO WHOM SHALL WE GO?

Refrain: *Lord, to whom shall we go?
You are our bread, broken and shared.
Lord, to whom shall we go?
Yours are the words of life.*

1. Our fathers ate, yet their hunger remained.
Their hearts were not satisfied.

Refrain

2. O Lord, you feed us with the finest of wheat, our pledge of eternal life.

Refrain

3. The bread you give is the living bread, your flesh for the life of the world.

Refrain

4. Your word, O Lord, is a lamp for my steps, a light for my path of life.

SONG OF PRAISE: DON'T BE AFRAID

Don't be afraid.
My love is stronger,
my love is stronger than your fear.
Don't be afraid.
My love is stronger and I have promised,
promised to be always near.

Repeat

RECESSIONAL: WE WALK BY FAITH

1. We walk by faith, and not by sight:
no gracious words we hear of him who spoke as none e'er spoke but we believe him near.
2. We may not touch his hands and side,
nor follow where he trod;
yet in his promise we rejoice and cry
"My Lord and God!"
3. Help then, O Lord, our unbelief
and may our faith abound;
to call on you when you are near
and seek where you are found.
