Upper Mt Gravatt Wishart Catholic Parish

St Bernard's, Upper Mt Gravatt
St Martin's, Eight Mile Plains
St Catherine's, Wishart

Guided by the Holy Spirit, we aim to be an evangelising, faith-filled parish whose members care for one another and are welcoming and inclusive.

The Upper Mt Gravatt Wishart Catholic Parish acknowledges the Jagera and Turrbal people, the traditional custodians on whose lands we live, work and worship.

21st SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME, YEAR A

26 / 27 August 2023

READINGS

Isaiah 22:19-23

I place the key of the House of David upon his shoulder.

Romans 11:33-36

From him, through him and in him are all things.

GOSPEL

Matthew 16:13-20

You are Peter, to you I will give the keys of the kingdom of heaven.

The First Reading narrates the transfer of authority from one to another. Three metaphors characterise the authority bestowed upon Eliakim the successor: father of the people, key to the house, and tent peg, foreshadowing the Gospel's investing of authority in Peter.

In the Second Reading, Paul praises God. He says that "from him and through him and for him are all things." For Paul, nothing good is possible without God. God is the very centre of all creation.

In the Gospel, Peter declares that Jesus is "the Christ, the Son of the living God". Jesus acknowledges that Peter knows the reality of Jesus' unity with God the Father and bestows on Him the authority which can only be given to one who knows and follows God's ways.

 The Bishops' Social Justice Sunday Statement, released this week, invites us to commit ourselves to God and God's ways, to Jesus who is the Son of the living God and the way of love, which he taught and lived.

The Statement invites us, in our contemporary situation here in Australia, to renew our commitment, in word and action, to reach out in love to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples, people who the Statement clearly shows are marginalised and disadvantaged in Australian society. Just as we are humbled in the presence of God who is at the centre of all things and whose love is eternal, we, who seek to be signs and witnesses of God's love in our world, must exercise humility and service in our encounters with Australia's First Nations Peoples. The Bishops call us to seek to listen to Australia's First Peoples and learn from them about their history, their culture and their spirituality, finding ways to collaborate for the improvement of their lives. The Bishops speak about the Church being a model of how love can change things for the better in Australia. Humility requires us to face up to our failings. Despite the good things we Catholics have done to support First Nations Peoples, we have also been a part of the wrongdoing of the past. When we acknowledge that we have strayed from our allegiance to God's way of love, we can begin to build new relationships with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples, relationships of friendship, love and accompaniment. It is in this renewed engagement with the First Peoples of Australia that the Bishops say we can begin to build a "civilisation of love" and lead the way in Australia to a hope-filled future.

The Social Justice Statement offers us some possibilities to cultivate in our community the love to which Christ invites us. Learning about the history, culture and spirituality of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples is one important way. Going out into the community and engaging with First Nations Peoples and their organisations is another important action.

The National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholic Council supports the referendum, but the Bishops do not tell us how to vote. However, they urge us to listen and learn about the concerns and the hopes of First Nations Peoples and decide on our vote having thought about what is in the interests of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples.

Antiphon: Glory and praise to our God,
who alone gives light to our days.
Many are the blessings he bears

who built the valleys and plains,
praise the wonders our God has done
in ev'ry heart that sings.

like gold that's tested in fire.
Though the power of sin prevails
our God is there to save.

APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.
