Guided by the Holy Spirit, we aim to be an evangelising, faith-filled parish whose members care for one another and are welcoming and inclusive.

THE TRANSFIGURATION of the LORD, YEAR A

5 / 6 August 2023

READINGS

Daniel 7:9-10, 13-14 His raiment was as white as snow.

2 Peter 1:16-19 We heard this voice from out of heaven.

GOSPEL

Matthew 17:1-9 His face was shining like the sun.

The First Reading depicts the courts of heaven at the end of the ages. The major figures are the Ancient One and the one like a Son of Man. 'Ancient One' implies both eternity and great wisdom. The one who comes on the clouds is described as one like the Son of Man. This mysterious figure is installed by God as ruler over the entire universe. His will be an everlasting kingdom, granted by God, not attained by means of conquest or political alliance. This figure may have been in heaven when he received his commission, he may even rule from some exalted place in the heavens, but his kingdom belongs to the earth.

The Gospel episode records a major change in the direction of Jesus' life. Up until now Jesus has been involved in a ministry in Galilee, where he has generally been accepted. Then in Matthew 16 there is the event at Caesarea Philippi where Peter confesses Jesus as, 'the Christ,' which leads to Jesus beginning to explain that he must go to Jerusalem where he will suffer and be killed. The transfiguration comes at the time – it is almost the last time we see Jesus in Galilee.

Moses and Elijah are two of Israel's great prophets who experienced the close presence of God at a time in their lives when they were called to take a difficult path. Both Moses and Elijah felt fear and weakness at the thought of their tasks but both received strength from God to continue.

In its symbols of the high mountain, clouds, light, Moses and Elijah, the evangelist presents this as a time when Jesus seeks and receives assurance from God. The voice from heaven repeats the words of Jesus' baptism experience, 'This is my Beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased'. It is as if Jesus, as he turns towards this new phase of his mission, is once again confirmed in his relationship with God.

In this scene, while in one way it presents Jesus in his divine glory, we also glimpse his genuine humanity, as he pauses to face the consequences of the decision to go to Jerusalem. He takes time out, calls aside his friends and enters into prayer. When we struggle with our decisions, when we feel afraid and weak, may we too seek and know the comforting presence of God.

In the Second Reading, Peter argues for the truth of the Gospel they preach, because he was a witness to the Transfiguration. It is the cry of every disciple, "I give you/show you what I have seen and known."

WE PRAY FOR THOSE WHO HAVE DIED

APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC ACCLAMATION

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your death, O Lord, until you come again.

Excerpts from the English Translation of The Roman Missal.

COMMUNION: THE BREAD OF LIFE

Refrain: *I am the bread of life.
Those who believe in me shall not hunger.
Those who believe will never thirst.
I am the bread, the bread of life.*

1. Take and eat of my body.
Take and drink of my blood poured out for you.
I have come to give life. Refrain
2. Take this bread freshly broken,
Grown from grain scattered on the ground to die
Death gives way to new life. Refrain
3. Take this cup of salvation,
Take and drink of this fruit crushed from the vine
Death gives way to new life. Refrain

Sing of the God who loves you!
