27th SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME, YEAR A

7 / 8 October 2023

READINGS

Isaiah 5:1-7

The vineyard of the Lord God of hosts is the House of Israel.

Philippians 4:6-9

Do these things and the God of peace will be with you.

GOSPEL

Matthew 21:33-43

He leased his vineyards to other farmers.

Congratulations to the children
(and their families)
who were confirmed on Friday night
at St Catherine's
and will receive their First Communion
at Masses over this and coming weekends.

Isaiah (First Reading) and the psalmist depict God as one who creates a loving and fruitful vineyard. The vineyard is Israel, the people of God. It also speaks of a harvest that should be the product of this finely and intentionally curated garden. Instead of the expected sweet fruit that the vineyard is entirely set up to produce, it brings forth sour grapes. The lack of responding to what God has done for Israel will leave it vulnerable as the walls are taken down and weeds allowed to enter. The fruit of justice and integrity that should be the product of the people of God is, instead, one of bloodshed and torment. Israel was often imaged as God's vineyard in the Hebrew Scriptures and so the central image of the Gospel's parable was immediately recognisable by Jesus' listeners. It is worth considering how precious the vineyard is to its owner. To cultivate a vineyard in fertile land takes time and effort; to cultivate a vineyard in the harsh, relatively dry and infertile soil of Israel takes enormous work and constant vigilance. The vineyard is an image of God's long term commitment.

Since this parable is found in Mark as well as Matthew and Luke it is likely to be a real saying of the historical Jesus. In all the Synoptics it is placed on the lips of Jesus at the end of his ministry as he faces the hostility of the religious leaders in Jerusalem. Jesus, in the final weeks of his life, uses this story to hold up to the leaders a picture of his own ministry and their rejection of it.

 We can also consider how Matthew has used the parable, or why he has used it for his community. The parable's vineyard has been taken from the original tenants and been given over to others. This parable not only interprets the meaning of Jesus' death at the hands of the religious leaders, but also offers an explanation to Matthew's community about the spread of the Gospel and the destruction of Jerusalem. Finally, we ask what the parable can say to us today. In our time we are the new stewards of the vineyard (God's kingdom on earth). The parable cautions us that we will be held accountable for our stewardship. Will our tenancy go the same way as Israel's when God calls us to account? Who are prophets in our midst calling us to greater fidelity and how are we treating them?

In the Second Reading, Paul admonishes the Philippians to turn to God in prayer, though he does not suggest that prayer is a magical exercise that will right every wrong. It is an openness to God, which itself can help bear trying circumstances, surrendering anxiety, to know God's peace. Paul then provides directives for judging the worthiness of things, interpreting the moral philosophy of the day from the perspective of his own Christian worldview and offering his own life as the example after which they are to model their lives.

RE REFERENDUM

FROM THE SOCIAL JUSTICE TEAM

The date for the referendum is almost upon us and is perhaps the most important decision we will make this decade. In a bid to help us all to make an informed decision, the social justice group is organizing two "kitchen table conversations" – a wonderful way to bring our parish community together to listen, learn and reflect on the Indigenous Voice to Parliament Referendum. Designed by the National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholic Council these conversations will be held at St Catherine's Hall on Sunday October 8th after the 8.30 a.m. Mass.

NEWS FROM THE BETHANY TEAM

Each year our Books of Remembrance are updated to record the names of deceased loved ones of our Parish.

These books are on display in St Bernard's church and the page is turned daily so that names are displayed on their anniversary each year. Those whose funerals were held in our churches are automatically entered in the Books of Remembrance. If you wish to have relatives or friends who died elsewhere remembered in this way, please provide the following details on the forms available at each church and place in the box provided by 16 October:

- Name of the deceased;
- Date of death in day/month/year format eg 4/8/1998

The Bethany Mass will be held at St Bernard's Church on Saturday 4 November at 9.00am. It is a beautiful way to remember those whom we loved who have died, and a blessing of the Columbarium is a fitting way to conclude this celebration.

After Mass all are warmly welcome to stay for light refreshments. Please mark your diaries for this very beautiful event.

NOVEMBER MASS ENVELOPES

You are invited to record the names of deceased family members and friends for whom you wish to have Masses offered throughout November.

Envelopes to make an offering are available at all churches. Folders in each church will display the requested names and they will be remembered during the month of November. Please place your envelope on the collection plate or return to the parish office by Friday 20 October.

APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.

Amen.

RECESSONAL: GOD SENDS US FORTH

1. God sends us forth to love and serve,
make known God's name, and live God's word,
mirror God's love, reflect God's grace
till all have seen the Saviour's face.
2. Nourished by Christ with word and bread, burning with love and Spirit-led,
sent to embrace a world in need,
to make God known in word and deed.
3. Called to the ones the world ignores hungry and thirsty, weak and poor
let us bear Christ, who heals all pain
and comforts those with guilt or shame.
4. So, with the cross to lead the way,
let us go forth in peace today
till ev'ry end of earth has known the saving love of God alone.
