Guided by the Holy Spirit, we aim to be an evangelising, faith-filled parish whose members care for one another and are welcoming and inclusive.

Our Lord JESUS CHRIST, KING of the UNIVERSE

25 / 26 November 2023

READINGS

Ezek 34:11-12, 15-17: You, my flock, I judge between sheep and sheep.

1 Cor 15:20-26, 28: He will hand over the kingdom to God the Father, so that God may be all in all.

GOSPEL

Matthew 25:31-46: He will take his seat on his throne of glory, and he will separate men one from another.

The Feast of Christ the King was introduced to the liturgical calendar by Pope Pius XI in 1925, in a world that had suffered through the First World War and was unknowingly heading towards the Second Word War. In this setting, the world was experiencing a dramatic growth in secularism and seeing many dictators rising to power in various states. The introduction of the feast was a call back from the secular and a call to remember Christ as having authority above and beyond any earthly leader, a reminder that there is a power for peace within the world that will not fail. The reign of Christ has been established, and the values of peace and justice are possible for those who seek this reign of God.

In this weekend's First Reading, Ezekiel is commissioned to announce a new order in which God will personally do what the shepherds of Israel (the former leadership) failed to do. As with much of the prophecy of Ezekiel this passage is highly rhetorical and full of grand imagery. It is designed to fuel faith that God is the only one who can give the people a meaningful future. No one will miss out; God the good shepherd is able to keep all the sheep in view no matter where they have been scattered in exile and will personally care for each one, bringing back the stray, bandaging the wounded and making the weak strong.

In the Second Reading, several of Paul's most treasured theological themes are brought together. As the first fruits of the dead, the Risen Christ is the most forceful expression of life after death, and his resurrection contains the promise of resurrection for all who are joined to him. Having conquered death, Christ will bring the fruits of his victory to God so that at the final consummation, God will be all in all.

This week's Gospel is the final passage in Matthew's gospel before the passion narrative – the death and resurrection of Jesus. As such, it provides a powerful end point to the teaching ministry section of the gospel. In many ways this passage can be seen as a summary of Jesus' vision for the Kingdom – a world in which the hungry, the thirsty, the stranger, the naked and the imprisoned are treated with respect and dignity as a child of God. This is exactly what Jesus himself did throughout his ministry and it is what all Christian people are called to do.

This week's liturgy marks the end of the liturgical cycle. To have this reading on the feast of Christ the King is a powerful reminder of how Jesus envisaged the Kingdom of God. For Jesus, the Kingdom was not a rule of power and status but a rule of justice and peace for even the lowliest. It is an apt conclusion to the liturgical year.

APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting. Amen.

EUCARISTIC ACCLAMATION

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

RECESSONAL: GLORY IN THE CROSS

1. Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ,
our salvation and our hope.

Let us bow in homage to the Lord of Life,
who was broken to make us whole.

There is no greater love, as blessed as this:
to lay down one's life for a friend.

Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ
and the triumph of God's great love.

2. Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ
who is risen from the grave.

He will come in glory to receive our hearts
at the dawn of the lasting day.

For the trumpet will sound, the dead shall be raised,
and death shall defeat us no more.

Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ
and the triumph of God's great love.

3. Let us raise our voices to the cross of Christ
where the earth and heaven unite.

God has wed creation on the tree of hope
where the darkness becomes our light.

Let us join in the dance of heaven and earth,
give thanks for the goodness of God.

Let us ever glory in the cross of Christ
and the triumph of God's great love.
