SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME, YEAR B

10 / 11 FEBRUARY 2024

READINGS

Leviticus 13:1-2, 44-46 As long as he is unclean, he must live alone, outside the camp.

1 Corinthians 10:31-11:1 Be imitators of me, as I am of Christ.

GOSPEL

Mark 1:40-45 The leprosy left him and he was cured.

The First Reading sets up the Gospel for this week by giving us the first and last verses on a long section on skin diseases (not just our modern leprosy). Taken by itself, the reading could give the wrong impression about attitudes to such diseases in biblical times. The verses in between show great care was taken to try and get the diagnosis right before the 'quarantine' was imposed. The community needed to strike a balance between care for the afflicted and the health of the whole community. Modern medicine has isolation wards in hospitals if needed, but for the Biblical world the only effective way of "isolating" was to be outside the campsite or village. The law was established to protect the health and well-being of all, but it could be abused. The "isolated" person could be regarded as sinful and being punished for that sin, leading to the afflicted person being ostracised and becoming a beggar. Awareness of this biblical background enhances the miracle story told in the Gospel. The leper, who, of course, is not supposed to approach anyone, feels emboldened to approach Jesus and his plea is a strong act of faith in the power and the status of Jesus. With leprosy considered a living death, curing it was tantamount to raising the dead. Approaching Jesus, the man believes, gives access to the life-giving power of God.

By stretching out his hand and touching the leper Jesus reaches right across the clean/unclean barrier in all its physical, social and moral dimensions. The gesture and declaration, 'I do so choose', expresses the divine compassion reaching out to afflicted humanity. In the conventional understanding of the time this would have exposed Jesus to contracting 'uncleanness' from the afflicted person. But for Jesus the clean/unclean process works the opposite way. True 'cleanness' or 'holiness' is something human beings catch by coming close to God, which is precisely what this man has achieved by having the faith, in his condition, to approach Jesus.

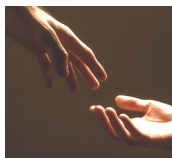

So often I (Mary Coloe) come to prayer feeling like this leper in need of Jesus' healing touch. I hear the desperation in his voice as he pleads, 'If you want you can cure me.' But deep down he wonders who would want to have anything to do with a leper. Would Jesus really want me? This Gospel remind us "yes, he does".

Another view of this Gospel causes reflection on social and cultural leprosy. Who are the alienated from society today?

Who do we put barriers up to because they are different? Are we willing to follow Jesus lead and reach out to those on the outside—not just with words, but with real presence and personal touch.

The Second Reading concludes the long answer to issue of eating meat offered to idols that was broached in Chapter 8 (which the lectionary leaves out). Paul concludes with positive principals—do all for the glory of God, adapt as you can to avoid offence and draw others to God. Paul points to his own life as an example, as he follows the example of Christ. In the TV series Kath and Kim, there was the great line spoken by Kath: 'Look at moi, look at moi.' Would we dare take this as our motto and dare to be living witnesses to our faith values? Jesus did. Paul did.

APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father
almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and life everlasting.
Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC ACCLAMATION

SONG OF PRAISE: COME AS YOU ARE

1. Come as you are, that's how I want you.
Come as you are, feel quite at home.
Close to my heart, loved and forgiven;
come as you are, why stand alone?
2. No need to fear, love sets no limits.
No need to fear, love never ends.
Don't run away shamed and dishearten'd.
Rest in my love, trust me again.
3. I came to call sinners, not just the virtuous.
I came to bring peace, not to condemn.
Each time you fail to live by my promise,
why do you think I'd love you the less?
4. Come as you are, that's how I love you.
Come as you are, trust me again.
Nothing can change the love that I bear you.
All will be well, just come as you are.

RECESSIONAL: GOD SENDS US FORTH

1. God sends us forth to love and serve,
make known God's name, and live God's word,
mirror God's love, reflect God's grace
till all have seen the Saviour's face.
3. Called to the ones the world ignores hungry and thirsty, weak and poor
let us bear Christ, who heals all pain
and comforts those with guilt or shame.
4. So with the cross to lead the way,
let us go forth in peace today
till ev'ry end of earth has known the saving love of God alone.
