ANNUAL MASS ATTENDANCE COUNT

The Archdiocese of Brisbane Annual Mass Attendance Count starts this weekend 4/5 May and continues on 11/12 May, 18/19 May & 25/26 May.

We encourage you to attend Mass each weekend during this period as this will assist us in understanding how many people are being reached in our local communities and across the Archdiocese.

In the First Reading, a rather truncated excerpt from Peter's interaction with the Roman centurion Cornelius, we find the early Church inching towards a new understanding of its identity and mission. It is not simply to be a renewal movement within Judaism but an instrument for the gathering of all nations into one worldwide People of God. As so often in Acts, the Holy Spirit is well 'out in front' and the community of believers, hitherto a movement within Judaism, has to catch up. In today's reading Peter describes the deeply moving experiences in connection with Cornelius that have led him, beyond himself and his previous understanding, to grasp the new reality to which the whole Church is being called.

The Second Reading states boldly the centrality of love as the supreme attribute of God: 'God is love.' The statement is foundation for an exhortation to believers to love one another. When believers truly love another, this is a sure sign that they have been drawn into and live within the life of God, which is love. We know this because we experience God in the divine outreach of love shown in the sending of the Son.

Towards the end the writer makes an important clarification: what is being talked about is not our love for God but God's love for us. Thus any ability to love on the part of believers is simply the extension of a great 'chain' of love stemming ultimately from the love of the Father. If our lives are caught up in this great chain, then we truly 'know' God and know that we have been 'begotten' by God. We are living in the community of love that is the 'family' of God.

The same 'chain' of love is central to the exhortation we hear in the Gospel. There is in this passage a progression of relationships: God loves Jesus who loves disciples who are to love one another. The measuring stick for our relationship with God is our relationship with each other. Christians cannot withdraw into a pious cosy 'me and God' duet. Being at home with God requires that we open ourselves to be at home with others. Not an easy task! There is a saying, 'absence makes the heart grow fonder,' and this can be true for God. It's easier to love the 'absent' God in a distant heaven than to love God present in our families or workplaces or living in our streets. 'Love one another, as I have loved you.' What are we asked to give to another – a listening ear, an hour of our time, a card or letter, a visit? 'What I command you is to love one another.'

WE NEED YOUR HELP

Please consider becoming a volunteer and support your local Mass community. We are in need of Readers, Extraordinary Ministers of Communion and Musicians/Cantors.

There are many volunteer roles in our Churches - have you ever wondered who arranges the flowers, hangs the drapes, cleans the brass and looks after our Church environment? This is another great opportunity to become involved.

If you would like to volunteer for any of these roles or maybe there is something else you would like to do please contact Debbie at the Parish Office.

There will be a training/formation session for EMCs on Wednesday 8th May and one for Readers on Wednesday 22nd May, both at 7pm in St Bernard's Church. We look forward to seeing you there.

APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.
