ELEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B

15 / 16 June 2024

READINGS

Ezekiel 17:22-24

I have made the small tree great.

2 Corinthians 5:6-10

Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing the Lord.

GOSPEL

Mark 4:26-34

The mustard seed, the smallest of all the seeds, grows into the biggest shrub of all.

How do you imagine the Kingdom of God? How do you describe it? Today's First Reading and Gospel use images from nature, specifically growing plants, to try to understand how God might work in world.

The First Reading uses imagery from earlier in Ezekiel where the cedar represented Israel and its king. So our reading today announces the new order that God will establish, referring to a king of the line of David whom God will establish on "a very high mountain", namely Jerusalem. The earlier use of birds as images for Egyptian and Babylonian kings suggest that here they represent the kings/nations of the world, no longer hostile to Israel but seeking its protection and favour. Because of what God will do for Israel and its king, the nations will come to know and acknowledge that Israel's God is the only divinity and that what God says God does – a theme that permeates the book of Ezekiel.

The Gospel imagery of "planting" and seeds furthers this imagery. Jesus's use of parables draws from the Hebrew Scriptures where parables are often used as a way of teaching and their value lay in not explaining them, but rather letting the listener be puzzled by them and search for their meaning. When considering the parables it is always worth thinking about why Jesus found this a helpful image for his own ministry, both for himself and for his disciples as well as the crowd. Then consider what the parable might mean for the early Christian community of Mark's gospel. What might be a comparable image for Churches today?

The Second Reading picks up mid-thought for Paul. He has been talking about how the earthly body will be temporary and we were "fashioned" for a heavenly dwelling. Paul's confidence comes from the Holy Spirit, given by God as a deposit/guarantee of things to come of our future.

In today's passage the language turns from clothing imagery to imagery of place and exile. In Paul's imagery, our earthly life is, in a way, an exile like the exiles of the Hebrew Scriptures. But Paul reminds the listener that it doesn't matter whether we "are in exile" or "with the Lord", our goal is to do what God asks of us, wherever and whenever we are. And here Paul jumps to another image, that of a courtroom. Paul uses the image to remind the listener that whatever circumstances we are in, God knows the truth about us and we are accountable for our actions.

APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father
almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC ACCLAMATION

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

wine, work of our hands,
one cup that is shared by all;
the Living Cup, the Living Bread of God.*

1. Is not the bread we break a sharing in our Lord?
Is not the cup we bless the blood of Christ
outpoured? Refrain
2. The seed which falls on rock will wither and will die.
The seed within good ground will flower and have life. Refrain

SONG OF PRAISE: FOR THE FRUITS OF ALL CREATION

1. For the fruits of all creation, thanks be to God.
For the gifts to ev'ry nation, thanks be to God.
For the ploughing, sowing, reaping,
silent growth while we are sleeping,
future needs in earth's safe-keeping, thanks be to God.
2. In the just reward of labour, God's will is done.
In the help we give our neighbor, God's will is done.
In our worldwide task of caring for the hungry and despairing,
in the harvests we are sharing, God's will is done.
3. For the harvests of the Spirit, thanks be to God.
For the good we all inherit, thanks be to God.
For the wonders that astound us,
for the truths that still confound us,
most of all that love has found us, thanks be to God.

RECESSIONAL: GOD SENDS US FORTH

1. God sends us forth to love and serve,
make known God's name, and live God's word,
mirror God's love, reflect God's grace
till all have seen the Saviour's face.
2. Nourished by Christ with word and bread, burning with love and Spirit-led,
sent to embrace a world in need,
to make God known in word and deed.
4. So with the cross to lead the way,
let us go forth in peace today
till ev'ry end of earth has known the saving love of God alone.
