TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B

22 / 23 June 2024

READINGS

Job 38:1-8, 8-11

Here I have set the boundaries of the sea.

2 Corinthians 5:14-17

All things are made new.

GOSPEL

Mark 4:35-41

Who can this be? Even the wind and the sea obey him.

The First Reading comes from the book of Job, a fictional tale about a non-Israelite from the land of Uz (therefore perhaps representing any human being) and is arranged like an upstairs-downstairs play. In today's passage, the theologian(s) who composed Job have God enter the human realm but without answering Job's challenge to explain the suffering of the innocent. Instead God takes Job on a guided tour of creation to show him how everything is in its proper place and God is definitely in charge. God puts to Job a series of questions focused upon God's mighty acts in creation, the chief of them being victory over the primeval watery chaos described in Genesis. In biblical thought and imagery, water out of control is the prime symbol of chaos and destruction. To control such forces, as poetically described in the present text, was considered a prerogative of God alone.

This history helps us to understand the Gospel. Until this scene, Jesus has been among the Jews, teaching and healing in Galilee, but now he decides to cross the lake, which will take him into the land of the Gentiles. With experienced fishermen among them, the apostles take charge of the boat and Jesus takes the chance of rest.

But the storm is more than even the fishermen experienced with the Galilean storms could handle. They are afraid. They wake Jesus, but don't ask for a miracle. They ask "Don't you care?"

Jesus wakes and commands the wind and the sea—and they obey! Mark's language choice is curious. In Mark, Jesus "rebukes" demons. This miracle is therefore presented as an exorcism. Jesus has power over the forces of chaos and the demonic. The disciples' question is the whole point of this episode; 'Who is this, that even the wind and sea obey him?' In the Old Testament, the one who has mastery over the chaos/evil symbolised by the sea is God. What looks like a relatively simple miracle is in fact a major demonstration of Jesus' identity for those who can read the symbols, and see the signs.

In the Second Reading is some of Paul's most stirring reflections upon the implications of really coming to appreciate the heart of the paschal mystery. There are two frames of reference considered here. The first is one of atonement ("Christ died for all") and places us "in debt" to the redeemer (Christ) so we should live for him not for ourselves. The second is that Christ's death and resurrection initiated a "new creation". In Christ we are "re-created", we begin anew with God, with ourselves and with each other.

The St Bernard's and St Catherine's SVDP Conferences wish to thank all the parishioners who have generously supported the recent Winter Appeal. Your generosity will help significantly in enabling the local members to continue to provide much needed assistance to struggling families and individuals in the local area during these difficult times.

ENTRANCE: GATHER US IN

1. Here in this place, new light is streaming,
now is the darkness, vanished away,
see, in this space, our fears and our dreamings,
brought here to you in the light of this day.
Gather us in the lost and forsaken,
gather us in the blind and the lame;
call to us now, and we shall awaken,
we shall arise at the sound of our name.
2. We are the young, our lives are a myst'ry,
we are the old who yearn for your face,
we have been sung throughout all of hist'ry,
called to be light to the whole human race.
Gather us in the rich and the haughty,
gather us in the proud and the strong;
give us a heart so meek and so lowly,
give us the courage to enter the song.

GLORIA

Refrain: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you,

Refrain

Lord Jesus Christ, Only begotten son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

Refrain

For you alone are the holy one,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, In the glory of God, the Father.

APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father
almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC ACCLAMATION

We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.

COMMUNION: MAY WE COME TO KNOW THE LORD

Refrain: *In the bread may we be broken.
In the cup may we be outpoured
May we come to the know the healer,
may we come to know the Lord.*

1. Though many are we, we are one in the Lord.
We are all welcome to his table of new life. Refrain
2. We come to the table to remember the Lord, who gave his life that we might live forevermore. Refrain
3. In breaking the bread, in sharing the cup, may we be filled as we come to know the Lord. Refrain

SONG OF PRAISE: DON'T BE AFRAID

Don't be afraid.

My love is stronger,
my love is stronger than your fear.

Don't be afraid.

My love is stronger and I have promised,
promised to be always near.

Repeat x3

RECESSIONAL: WE WALK BY FAITH

1. We walk by faith, and not by sight:
no gracious words we hear
of him who spoke as none e'er spoke
but we believe him near.
3. Help then, O Lord, our unbelief,
and may our faith abound;
to call on you when you are near,
and seek where you are found.
4. That when our life of faith is done
in realms of clearer light
we may behold you as you are in full and endless sight.
