TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B

24 / 25 August 2024

READINGS

Joshua 24:1-2,15-18 We will serve the Lord God, because he is our God.

Ephesians 5:21-32 This is the great mystery, it applies to Christ and the Church.

GOSPEL

John: 6:60-69 Lord, whom shall we go to? You have the words of everlasting life.

On this Social Justice Sunday, the readings put before us ask the question: What makes sense and what doesn't? This implies the question: Does a Christian commitment to social justice make sense?

In the First Reading, the Chosen People face a big decision as they leave the desert and enter the Promised Land. Their God was a desert God who had met them in the desert and led them through the desert for forty years. In a world where gods were tied to place, it made sense to leave this God in the desert as they entered an agricultural land where other gods held sway, the gods the Bible knows as the Baals. But Joshua puts before them another logic which doesn't seem to make sense – that they remain faithful to their desert God, that they trust their God to be their protector not only in the desert but also in the Promised Land. This is a major theological shift, implying that the deity is not tied to place: the God of Israel is God in every place.

In the Gospel, some of those who have heard the words of Jesus – that he is the Bread of Life and that his Body must be eaten, and his Blood must be drunk – decide that this makes no sense, and they take their leave. In response to the Lord's question, Peter (like the Israelites in the First Reading) takes a leap of faith and says that Jesus makes ultimate sense as the one who has the words of eternal life in a way that no-one else has; and he has these words because he alone is "the Holy One of God". Whatever Peter & the disciples don't know, they have come to know that.

In the Second Reading, Paul puts before his community a vision which doesn't make sense in a world where a wife was regarded as part of a man's goods and chattels and where it was seriously counter-cultural to speak of the dignity of every human being and the rights attaching to this. But Paul offers a vision of radical mutuality in marriage which is based upon a sense of the equal dignity and rights of husband and wife; and he links this to the radical mutuality of love which unites Christ and the Church. Paul's vision is born of the encounter with the Risen Christ, the Bridegroom who has taken a Bride to himself. It is this encounter which overturns all the seemingly non-negotiable hierarchies of the world, the kind of hierarchies which reject mutuality and see some human beings as having a dignity, and rights denied to others.

This year's Social Justice Statement has as its theme, TRUTH AND PEACE: A Gospel Word in a Violent World. At a time when violence is everywhere we look, words of truth don't seem to make sense. It looks like weakness in a world where it seems only the strong can thrive. This is the upside-down logic of the Cross which never seems to make sense. On this Social Justice Sunday, we are God's People who speak that truth upon which peace depends.

Adapted from the liturgy notes released with the ACBC 2024-25 Social Justice Statement.

APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC ACCLAMATION

When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

SONG OF PRAISE: GOD OF DAY AND GOD OF DARKNESS

1. God of day and God of darkness, now we stand before the night; As the shadows stretch and deepen, come and make our darkness bright.
All creation still is groaning for the dawning of your might, when the Sun of peace and justice fills the earth with radiant light.

2. Still the nations curse the darkness, still the rich oppress the poor; Still the earth is bruised and broken by the ones who still want more.
Come and wake us from our sleeping so our hearts
cannot ignore, all your people lost and broken, all
your children at our door.

3. Show us Christ in one another, make us servants strong and true; Give us all your love of justice, so we do what you would do.
Let us call all people holy, let us pledge our lives
anew,
make us one with all the lowly, let us all be one in
you.

RECESSIONAL: SONG FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

1. Sing a song for peace and justice,
speak for those who cannot speak!
Claim the world for peace and justice:
let the strong support the weak.

Refrain: *Light a candle in the darkness;
hope and freedom must not die!
Hope and freedom must not die!*

2. You who live in happy places,
who can laugh and speak and sing,
listen for the other voices
mute with fear and suffering. Refrain

4. Thousands cry in nameless prisons,
plead with powers who hold the key:
plead that human rights be honoured
that the innocent go free. Refrain
