TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B

12 / 13 October 2024

READINGS

Wisdom 7:7-11 In comparison to wisdom, I held riches as nothing.

Hebrews 4:12-13 The word of God discerns the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

GOSPEL

Mark 10:17-27 Go and sell whatever you have and come follow me.

In the First Reading Solomon is portrayed as the speaker in our text, and wisdom, in line with the earlier book of Proverbs, is the spirit of God in the guise of a wise woman. She (wisdom) bestows on her humble pupil things more precious than anything that a king could acquire with all his power. The speaker claims that all the things wisdom bestowed on him ultimately led him to love her more than anything he has been given and to value his relationship with her more than any insight that she provided. The most valuable thing that wisdom provides is a loving (loyal) and true relationship with God, what the author calls a few verses beyond our reading 'friendship with God'.

The Gospel, is the next instalment in the series from Mark about the cost of discipleship. It started with taking up our cross, moved through leadership, authority and who is included to the type of life choices that put God first—last week in marriage and reliance, this week with wealth.

Jesus' first response is to deflect the title of "Good" to God. God is the author and giver of life. Questions about 'life' must be considered strictly in relation to what God has laid down and this, in first instance at least, is to be found in the commandments of the Torah, several of which – all ones dealing with duties to one's neighbour – Jesus lists.

When the man responds that he has kept all these from his youth, the interaction moves to a new plane. The discussion moves from the requirements of the Torah to a personal relationship, with the initiative on Jesus' side ("Jesus looked at him steadily and loved him"). The instructions Jesus now offers do not stand by themselves but flow out of the offered relationship. But the invitation is declined.

Now the apostles are confused. Wealth, in the social norms of Jesus' day, was a sign of God's blessing. So how can wealth make it harder to enter the kingdom of God? In an insecure world wealth is the most obvious form of security for the future. For Jesus the only real source of security is to have 'wealth' not in an earthly bank, but in a heavenly one ('treasure in heaven'). Everything comes to being prepared to share something of Jesus' radical trust in God. In this context of love and companionship, freedom from attachment to wealth becomes possible – as Peter's following comment does in fact point out.

The Second Reading comes at the end of a discussion/mini-homily that has explored God's promises to Israel and the need for Israel (and now believers in Christ) to respond to God's word. This word penetrates into the innermost desires and intentions—everything about us is known by and must respond to God.

ENTRANCE: THE SUMMONS

1. Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown, will you let my name be known?
Will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?
2. Will you love the "you" you hide if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside and never be the same?
Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around, through my sight and touch and sound in you and you in me?
3. Will you turn and follow me and never be the same. In your company I'll go where your love and foot steps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.
4. Lord, your summons echoes true when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you and never be the same. In your company I'll go where your love and foot steps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.
5. Lord, your summons echoes true when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you and never be the same. In your company I'll go where your love and foot steps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.

APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC ACCLAMATION

Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

The people in darkness have seen a great light.
The Lord of our longing has conquered the night.

Refrain: Let us build the city of God.

May our tears be turned into dancing!
For the Lord, our light and our love,
has turned the night into day!

- We are sons of the morning; we are daughters of day.

The Lord of all kindness has called us to be a light for his people to set their hearts free.

In Mongolia, Chuluunbaatar suffered a life-altering injury while trying to rescue a submerged vehicle, leaving him unable to work and reliant on scarce support services for basic needs. Without shelter and food, Chuluunbaatar faces the real risk of freezing to death. Resources are limited, but the Church in Mongolia is working hard to provide essential services to people in need.

Your support can make a significant difference to the lives of many, offering hope and tangible assistance to individuals like Chuluunbaatar.
