THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B

26 / 27 October 2024

READINGS

Jeremiah 31:7-9 I shall lead them back in mercy - both the blind and the lame.

Hebrews 5:1-6 You are a priest forever, in the line of Melchizedek.

GOSPEL

Mark 10:46-52 Master, grant that I may see.

In the First Reading, salvation is an accomplished fact. The passage is generally accepted as referring to the return of the Northern Kingdom from exile in Assyria. The imagery is replete with allusions to new life. In later times, the wonders foretold in such text were related to the hopes for the messianic era, which the healing miracles of Jesus, such as that described in the Gospel, fulfil. In line, too, with the attractive divine statement at the end, Jesus taught his disciples to address God – as he himself did – as 'Father'.

Today's Gospel episode concludes a very significant section of Mark's Gospel, which began with Jesus healing a blind man in Bethsaida in Galilee, then setting out on a journey south to Jerusalem along the Jordan valley. In this journey, Jericho is the last stop before Jerusalem, and it is here that he meets another blind man. In between these two miracles where blind people gain sight, Jesus has been trying to lead his disciples to an understanding of his mission.

Now, in today's reading, blind Bartimaeus models what discipleship entails. In his poverty he calls out to Jesus knowing that only Jesus can give him what he truly desires. When he is healed, he leaves behind all he has and becomes a follower of Jesus on the way that will lead to the cross.

Where the disciples are blinded by their ambitions, Bartimaeus sees clearly and he willingly leaves his things behind, throws off his cloak and takes up the position of a disciple – a follower on the way. This episode is far more than a simple healing miracle; it is really a lesson in discipleship and it makes a sharp contrast with the ignorance and ambition shown by Jesus' disciples throughout his journey.

In the Second Reading, continues the sense of Jesus as High Priest. The Jewish high priests interceded with God on behalf of the people. Because Jesus is human, he can truly sympathise with human weakness. Because of his divine status and appointment, Jesus is uniquely placed to bring our needs before God. These words aimed at encouraging this community in their struggle to keep faith in the midst of suffering and persecution.

APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.
