Upper Mt Gravatt Wishart Catholic Parish

St Bernard's, Upper Mt Gravatt

St Catherine's, Wishart

Guided by the Holy Spirit, we aim to be an evangelising, faith-filled parish whose members care for one another and are welcoming and inclusive.

The Upper Mt Gravatt Wishart Catholic Parish acknowledges the Jagera and Turrbal people, the traditional custodians on whose lands we live, work and worship.

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B

5 / 6 October 2024

READINGS

Genesis 2:18-24

They were two in one flesh.

Hebrews 2:9-11

He who sanctifies, and those who are sanctified have one origin.

GOSPEL

Mark 10:2-16

What God has joined together, no one must divide.

As Catholics, we believe the Scriptures are one way God speaks to us. But sometimes the readings of a particular Sunday sound so out of tune with our culture and times that it can seem easier to ignore them or skip over them. This weekend's reading can fall into that category for many people. So how do we trust that God is truly still speaking to us, even in passages that can seem judgmental, harsh or out of touch?

First, don't forget what we know of the love, grace and compassion of God/Jesus/Spirit. When passages seem out of step with that character we need to keep digging and ask for God's guidance in how to understand the passage.

Listen to the Homily. Listen to how the priests break open difficult passages and seek to apply them to modern life. Remember the homily might also put the readings in context of Church teaching on particular issues which the reading speak to. These teachings may explain why the readings were included in the Lectionary, or placed on particular days.

It might help to go away and read the passages before and after our Lectionary selections as this context might give insight into the authors' original intention.

Sometimes we need to seek the wisdom of others. The Break Open the Word books (see back page for ordering) contain a short commentary on the readings which can help. Our Parish libraries also contain books that break open Scriptures. Finally, our Parish has a group that meets on Tuesday evenings where we discuss the readings in their contexts.

Finally, keep going back to God. Even with all the wisdom we can gather, it is God's voice we need to hear. After we've done the work with a difficult passage we still need to ask ourselves what is God trying to tell me?

Pauline

APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.
