THIRTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR B

9 / 10 November 2024

READINGS

1 Kings 17:10-16 *The widow made a little scone from her flour meal
and brought it to Elijah.*

Hebrews 9:24-28 Christ offered himself only once to take the faults of many on himself.

GOSPEL

Mark 12:38-44 This poor widow has put more in than all who contributed.

In the Catholic tradition, as part of living out our faith, November is dedicated to prayer for those who have died. Our traditions remind us that in times of great sadness we are never alone.

In Parish churches from this weekend you will notice the 'Tree of Life'. Please come and write your deceased loved ones' names on the paper leaves and place them on the tree. Together we watch the tree come to life as we remember our community includes those who have 'gone in faith before us'.

Today's First Reading picks up mid way through a story. There is a great drought over the land and God arranges for ravens to feed Elijah the prophet for a time. Now God sends Elijah to a foreign city, effectively putting him in enemy territory as he has been speaking out against the local god Baal's presence in the royal court of Israel. Arriving in Sidon, a foreign widow now provides water and food for the prophet. Together the story is a critique of Israel—while Israel ignores God and God's word, animals and foreigners do God's bidding. It also speaks to the reliance of the prophet on God for provision and, finally in the link to today's Gospel, it speaks to God's provision in the lives of those who trust God and give generously.

The Gospel today also has a widow who gives all she has. And we hear the echo of last week's Gospel "Love God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind and with all your strength." Like Bartimaeus from the Gospel two weeks ago, this widow is another model of discipleship as she gives her all. Jesus' words also place her as a model for what he will do before the end of the week—"give all [he] has".

During our day, it might appear that our lives are small, our discipleship hardly noticeable, but this scene suggests that God sees things differently. God doesn't measure the amount, but the inner disposition of our hearts.

Hearing Jesus' acknowledgement of the widow's gift, we see the contrast with the scribes at the beginning of the passage. They are acting for show and for the praise of others, they are not concerned with the concerns of God. Remember the Scribe's words last week when he says that love of God and neighbour is "far more important than holocaust or sacrifice". This Gospel asks us how are we like the scribes? How are we like the widow?

The Second Reading continues from last week, pointing out that while high priests performed their sacrificial duties in the earthly temple, the exalted Jesus entered the true sanctuary. It stresses the absolute all-sufficient assurance of Christ's salvific work for the removal of sin since the sacrifice he offered was that of his own life on the cross. Much of this sacrificial imagery is lost on us today, as we are unfamiliar with Jewish worship at the time of Jesus. The Letter to the Hebrews reminds us of the importance of working to understand the Hebrew Scriptures (Old Testament) as a lens to help us understand Jesus.

ENTRANCE: GATHER US IN

- Here in this place, new light is streaming,
now is the darkness, vanished away,
see, in this space our fears and our dreamings,
brought here to you in the light of this day.
Gather us in the lost and forsaken,
gather us in the blind and the lame;
call to us now and we shall awaken,
we shall arise at the sound of our name
- Here we will take the wine and the water,
Here we will take the bread of new birth,
here you shall call your sons and your daughters,
call us anew to be salt for the earth.
Give us to drink the wine of compassion,
give us to eat the bread that is you;
nourish us well and teach us to fashion,
lives that are holy and hearts that are true.

APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of God the Father
almighty;
from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting.
Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC ACCLAMATION

Save us, Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.
