TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C

18 / 19 October 2025

READINGS: Exodus 17:8-13    2 Timothy 3:14-4:2

GOSPEL: Luke 18:1-8

Dear friends in Christ,

In today's Gospel, we meet a woman of deep faith - a widow who refuses to give up hope, even in a hopeless situation. She pleads for justice from an unjust judge, and through her persistence, she is heard. Jesus uses this powerful image to teach us about prayer that never loses heart, and about God's unwavering care for the poor, the vulnerable, and the forgotten.

At the heart of this Gospel is a promise: God listens to the cry of the oppressed. And often, God responds through us. We become His instruments - His hands, His heart - when we reach out to those in need. Through our generous giving, we become channels of Christ's love, bringing light into places of darkness and hope into lives that feel forgotten.

This is the spirit of World Mission Sunday. This weekend, our parish joins the global Church in supporting Catholic Mission, which brings the Gospel and practical care to communities in need. This year, we focus on Zambia, where the Church is helping mothers, families, and entire villages longing for a better future.

As we join Catholics around the world in observing World Mission Sunday, we are reminded of a profound truth: we are part of something far greater than ourselves. Over one billion believers, united in prayer and Eucharist, stand together in support of the Church's mission to bring the Gospel to every corner of the earth.

This tradition, begun nearly a century ago, calls each of us to embrace our role in Christ's mission. Whether we serve in distant lands or live our faith quietly here in our parish, we are all missionaries of hope. Pope Leo XIV's message for this Jubilee Year invites us to be "Missionaries of Hope Among All Peoples," letting the Holy Spirit guide us, and bringing light to places overshadowed by fear and despair.

Our Catholic Mission Appeal is a chance to respond with generosity and love. Even the smallest gift becomes a beacon of hope - a sign that we stand with those in need.

Let us give from the heart. Let us be part of something bigger. And let us remember when we support the mission, we share in the work of Christ - bringing faith, dignity, and light to the world.

Fr Rony
