THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME YEAR C

25 / 26 October 2025

READINGS: Sirach 35:12-14, 16-19 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 16-18

GOSPEL: Luke 18:9-14

Friends,

In keeping with my practice, I would like to draw our attention to some of the nuances in our prayers at mass, sometimes obscured by translation.

Looking over the prayers, both the Latin form and our English translations have made for a direct translation, but I bring our attention to the word "charity".

The opening prayer reads "Almighty...God, increase our faith, hope, and charity...". "Charity" translates the Latin word "caritas/charitas", but the Latin word itself does not mean "charity". The Latin word is a deeply emotive word meaning: "dearness", costliness, affection, love, high regard, among other things. The letters of St. Paul, when read in the Latin, addresses his readers as "carissime" meaning "(my) dearly beloved".

Caritas is really a sort of "affectionate love". Charity could be seen as having some basis in caritas, say if someone were to be moved to pity for a person experiencing severe hardship – I think of St. Francis of Assisi, who was so moved that, in a surge of compassion, he hugged a leper and kissed him. But charity, in the modern sense of giving some of our earnings/goods to an organisation, to distribute to the poor is not what is meant by the prayer.

Another word worth highlighting in the Latin text: the "da...augmentem". Where we will hear: "increase our faith hope and charity", the Latin says "give increase to our faith hope and charity".

In our faith, we refer to these three things as the "theological virtues" – they come from God and direct us back to God. So to ask God to give more is to acknowledge that if these three things are in us at all, they are the result of God bestowing them on us.

The prayer goes on to ask, additionally, that we may "love" God's teaching and consequently "attain [God's] promises". The prayer foresees that building virtues generally is not a walk in the park and requires effort and on occasion sacrifice. In these times, it acknowledges that God's gift of trust and love helps us put one foot in front of the next. In time, the work pays off: on earth we enjoy the satisfaction of living a life of integrity, and in the end we look expectantly to receiving heaven.

The logic of the scriptures on many occasions turns human and even our biological logic on its head. A person might say: "my body wants this!" or "I want this, because I can have it!", but where these things are harmful towards us or others, Jesus's teachings are explicit about self-discipline so that we may be like God and ultimately share life with God eternally. Christianity both, in the early centuries, and seemingly in some quarters today, has drawn ire for its sobriety.

If we are sober, it is so we can enjoy caritas given and caritas received, among ourselves and in our daily experience of God.

With every blessing,

Fr. Francis

WE PRAY FOR THOSE WHO HAVE DIED

SATURDAY 1 NOVEMBER

ALL SAINT'S DAY MASS

9.00am, St Martin's Church

All Saints Day, celebrated on November 1st, is a solemn feast in the Catholic Church. It is a day to celebrate the countless holy men and women who lived lives of faith, love, and virtue—some canonized by the Church, others quietly faithful in their daily lives. The feast reminds us that sainthood is not reserved for a few but is a universal call to holiness. These saints are individuals who have lived lives of extraordinary faith and dedication to God, serving as role models for Christians. Let's be encouraged: the path to sainthood begins in daily life. Always remember—there's a potential saint in each of us. To celebrate this feast, we will have a Mass followed by morning tea in our parish on Saturday, 1st November at 9:00 AM, at St Martin's Church, Eight Mile Plains. All are most welcome!

sing of your Lord's goodness,
melodies of praise and thanks to God.*

*Ring out the Lord's glory,
praise him with your music,
worship him and bless his name.*

Courage in our darkness, comfort in our sorrow,
Spirit of our God most high;
solace for the weary, pardon for the sinner,
splendor of the living God. R.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify

Lord God heavenly king, O God, almighty father. R.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only begotten son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us. R.

For you alone are the holy one, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God, the Father. R.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM: PSALM 32

The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Accl. Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

God was in Christ to reconcile the world to himself; and the Good News of reconciliation he has entrusted to us. Alleluia! Accl.

APOSTLE'S CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died and was buried;
he descended into hell;
on the third day he rose again from the dead;
he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

EUCCHARISTIC ACCLAMATION

Save us Saviour of the world, for by your Cross and Resurrection you have set us free.

COMMUNION: *MAY WE COME TO KNOW THE LORD

*In the bread may we be broken.
In the cup may we be outpoured
May we come to the know the healer,
may we come to know the Lord.*

Though many are we, we are one in the Lord.
We are all welcome to his table of new life. R.

We come to the table to remember the Lord,
who gave his life that we might live forevermore. R.

In breaking the bread, in sharing the cup,
may we be filled as we come to know the Lord. R.

SONG OF PRAISE: THE CRY OF THE POOR

The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

Blessed be the Lord.

I will bless the Lord at all times,
with praise ever in my mouth.
Let my soul glory in the Lord,
who will hear the cry of the poor. R.

Let the lowly hear and be glad:
the Lord listens to their pleas;
and to hearts broken God is near,
who will hear the cry of the poor. R.

RECESSIONAL: *A NEW HEART FOR A NEW WORLD

*Create a new heart, Holy Lord,
beckon our lives through your word,
open our eyes to your call,
united as one for the your world.
Heighten our minds to your thoughts,
heal us of pride and of hurt,
may we go forth in your name
we pray our hearts change.*

The heart of the cross,
lowly and poor calls us on.
Lord, it is you promising hope, promising truth. R.
Restless, the hearts that yearn for your peace
in this land.
Deepen the dream, justice brings life,
justice redeems. R.
